Mr. Herb Melnick

Dear Herb:

I am pleased that you have agreed to permit me to catalogue significant parts of the Auction. As you know, I am selling mostly duplicates from my collection.

Over fifteen years ago, I started to collect the Israel Commemoratives. My interest quickly expanded to Israel paper money and Judaic Syngraphics. The limits of my collecting interest have expanded beyond my wildest dreams. It took great effort to separate and assemble adequate material for exhibiting. I have been fortunate to have prepared eight exhibits which have won either Best of Show or Class at the A.I.N.A. Greater New York Coin Convention. Had I not exhibited,a myriad of material would be housed in shoe boxes, as is the case with most collectors. I felt that I owed others the opportunity to enjoy the chase, and this Auction, I hope, will whet their appetites to collect and/or write or exhibit in new areas that might interest them. I hope they will find the information in this catalog useful and that it might be a source of reference for use in the future.

Collecting has been a tranquilizer for me to escape from the busy world into the labrynth of the history of the Jewish people. I have always believed that the numismatist and/or philatelist are brothers, and my exhibits have always contained both. This Auction contains both, with no regard as to the limits of either. I appreciate NASCA granting me this privilege.

"A picture is worth a thousand words", and the story we collectors tell is to evidence an event, person or situation that existed and, as historians, the memorabilia will live on beyond our lifespans.

To my fellow collectors, the mistakes are mine and, invariably, I am sure they exist, even though I have tried to research accurately. Happy hunting, and I hope that some of this material will show up in a competitive exhibit.

The only choice for selling these items was NASCA, the leaders in selling Judaica, and, again, I thank you for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Stanley Yulish

A LOVELY SELECTION OF JUDAIC CEREMONIAL OBJECTS

3748 1856. Viennese silver Spice Box. (Photo) ($800-Up)
Lovely and rare piece of filigree work, hallmarked and dated on the flag. 9½" high on a 2" square base, four arches of filigree silver leading to four threaded silver rods curving up through a five-lobed leaf to the main compartment with its hinged door. Above that, a further open filigree tower, surmounted by a 4-sided pyramidal steeple topped by ball and flag. Careful, delicate work.

3749 19th Century Berlin. Silver Spice Box. (Photo) ($450-Up)
Narrow 9½" high circular tower form above raised base, the central compartment (with hinged door) done in handsome silver filigree. Above this rises a short circular turret, capped, surmounted by cone-shaped steeple with ball and revolving flag, vine-leaf ornamentation on steeple. 3 hallmarks on base. Very nice work.

3750 Tall silver-plated Spice Box. (Photo) ($250-Up)

MAGNIFICENT SUNFLOWER SPICE BOX

3751 Eastern Europe, early 1900's. Spice Box in silver shaped like sunflower group. (Photo) ($600-Up)

6½" high with the main flower 3" wide. Two smaller sunflowers, one at each side, leaf in rear, three leaves help support shaft attached to base with floral decorations. The actual spice box is inside the main flower, the front of which unscrews. Beautiful design; very well executed.

Tower form silver double box—a central section opens by a hinged door, and the flag at the top also lifts off to reveal a pyramidal compartment at top. Unusual!

3753 19th Century German miniature silver spice box. (Photo) ($400-Up)

Tower-shaped, a bit over 3½" high. A miniature reproduction of an 18th Century German type, with working hinged door and four miniature hatted figures at the four corners of the balustrade. Miniatures of ceremonial objects are all rare.

Designed as a rolling coach modelled after the 18th and 19th Century carriages of the nobility, this piece features a beautiful silver filigree central box, 1½" on a side, with hinged door, supported at each end by curved silver rods ending at axles (each with two silver filigree wheels that work!) Very nice workmanship, unusual design, stamped "ESCO Sterling" on bottom.

3755 Large Gothic style silver Spice Box. (Photo) ($800-Up)

11½" high on a 4" wide base, featuring Gothic towers, balustrades, three actual working bells (one at top, one in each side arch), lions springing

3756 19th Century European. Beautiful silver fish-shaped Spice Box. (Photo) ($900-Up)

Rising from a seashell base is a carefully-wrought fish entwined with the stem of a water plant which rises above his tail to a flower and spiral-fluted bud which is itself the unscrewable cap of the container. Total height is 10", with the base 3¾" wide front to back. One of the most attractive designs we have handled.

3757 18th-19th Century Persian. Sephardic Rose-water Bottle, silver. (Photo) ($600-Up)

9½" high by nearly 3" wide, a circular base leading to an octagonal body which, in turn, leads through a round top to an hexagonal plate and into an hexagonal tower ending in a flower with sprinkler holes. The bottle separates with a screw-junction at the hexagonal plate. Hebrew inscription around body: "A woman of valor, who can find? She is worth more than rubies."

3758 Nice silver Kiddush Cup. (Photo) ($300-Up)

In 18th Century German style, with the inside of the cup gilt. 5" high, base 2¾" wide. Above petal and flower designs on base and cup comes an hexagonal lip, each face bearing Hebrew inscriptions except the 6th, which has vine and grapes motif and ends the legend. A lovely example.

3759 1884. Small silver Kiddush Cup from Russia. (Photo) ($400-Up)

Just under 3" high, 2¼" wide at lip, with attractive floral decorations. Hallmarked (including date) on bottom.

Beautiful bead-bordered floral designs with his coat of arms in panel on two sides. 4½" high. One of the most prominent members of the great de Worms family in England, he worked extensively in Ceylon and ran the family business.

FANTASTIC RAILROAD TRAIN SPICE BOX

3761 Late 19th Century European? Beautiful silver filigree railroad engine. (Photo) ($1,000-Up)

Fully detailed engine in silver filigree, more than 5" long and nearly 2" high, with full working tracker and driver wheels and bars. The boiler section is a spice box, and the low and wide hatch behind the smokestack is its opening. Hallmarked "835" on left driver bar. We have never seen one anything like this detailed!

A masterpiece of crenelated and turretted battlements on two layers, the lower one rising to a broad porch with an oval tower which is actually a removable candle holder for Havdallah; the higher section, ending in a square top tower with four flanking round turrets and a flag, conceals (as a dungeon door at right end) a sliding spice drawer. Magnificent workmanship!

RAILROAD TRAIN SPICE BOX

Barrel-shaped central box in silver filigree with circular silver end and knobbed silver end plug, two smokestacks on top, four small (working) silver wheels. Overall 2¾" high, 3" long. Looks just like an early 19th Century railroad engine!

3765 Nice hand-carved rosewood Yad (Torah Pointer.) (Photo) ($250-Up)

10½" long, square shaft, top finished in a clenched hand for hanging. Hebrew inscription carved deeply into face. Lovely color and grain.

3766 Ca. 1900. Beautiful Eastern European silver Yad (Torah Pointer). (Photo) ($350-Up)

More than 12" long, ornamented with the Decalogue, the Crown, floral decorations, lions, and an eagle finial; decorative silver ring on back for hanging. The hand is hallmarked with the head of Moses and an "8" while the number 155 is engraved on the lower reverse shaft. A lovely example.

3767 Beautifully made 9" silver Yad. (Torah Pointer). (Photo) ($300-Up)

Carefully designed in style of the earliest types which were carved from small branches: the lower shaft (below the attractive scroll-ornamentation) is curved and retains a projecting section like a smaller cut-off branch. The decoration above the hand and at the top is covered with projections designed to resemble the nails with which silver decorations were attached to the early wooden ones. Lovely.

3768 Ca. 1900. North African silver Yad (Torah Pointer.) (Photo) ($200-Up)

Cast silver, 7½" long, with floral decoration on the top surface and a lengthy Hebrew inscription on the reverse. Attractive.

3772 Nice silver-handled Challah Knife. (Photo) ($200-Up)
Old silver handle with pilllars, cup and table, etc., on one side and the twisted and braided pattern of the bread on the other. New Sheffield Stainless blade. Overall about 13" long, attractive and useful.

3773 Ca. 1920. Palestinian silver-plated wine decanter with 6 cups. (Photo) ($300-Up)
Barrel 7" long, with spigot, resting on silver cradle with hooks for cups, overall height about 7". Ends of barrel embossed with scenes: "Tower of David" on back end, "Spies in the Vineyard" on spigot end. Beautiful set, very scarce.

3774 Ca. 1900. Hand carved wood Purim Grogger from Galicia. (Photo) ($800-Up)
A very large one, 8½" high at handle, 11" long by 4½" high on spinner, with two very loud clackers. Hebrew inscriptions and deep and lively hand-carved scene of Mordecai led by Haman.

3775 1902. Beautiful pair of silver Rimmonim (Torah finials) from Russia. (Photo) ($1,200-Up)
Three-tiered, nearly 15" high overall. Hallmarked from Russia in 1902. Each is topped by a small silver eagle; then a hollow turret with 3 bells; a floral-decorated central section with 4 bells on projections; and a larger lower section again with 4 bells; beneath all, the tapered hollow handles which slip over the ends of the Torah "ez Chayyim." Rare and beautiful.

3776 Very fine 14" Shofar. (Photo) ($450-Up)
Deep brown horn, nicely curved and flattened, engraved on one side with the Hebrew legend "Happy the people who hear the sound of the Shofar" and, on the other, with ornamentation, the engraving lightly gilt. An excellent specimen.

The traditional (and religiously prescribed) horn of Israel. Attractive yellowish-white horn.

3778 Very large Shofar, nearly 35" long. ($300-Up)
A large brown and white twisted horn, engraved with sets of deep parallel grooves. Would be 40" if straight. Traditional Yemenite type of Shofar. A very attractive wall decoration—should also have a fine tone—environmental impact prevents us from testing it so near Jericho!

3779 19th Century German Silver Alms Box. (Photo) ($450-Up)
4¼" high, 2¾" wide at base, with handle and lockable hinged lid. Hebrew word "Tzadakah"–"Charity"—engraved in floral wreath on front. Very attractive specimen, two hallmarks on bottom.

3783 Ca. 1900. Lovely matched set of five silver Passover dishes from Germany. (Photo) ($300-Up)
Nice deep oval dishes about 4" by 2¼", rose and leaf pattern in high embossing with vine-curved edges, each with central plaque inscribed, in Hebrew, with name of one of the traditional foods—Karpas, Marror, Beitzah, etc.—and the hallmark "800." A very desirable group.

3784 Large two-handled brass Laver. (Photo) ($100-Up)
Nearly 5" wide at top, 4¾" high, surmounted from the back by two smoothly curved handles of brass. Decorated below the lip with vine motifs, and bearing the engraved Hebrew inscription "For Washing the Hands."

3785 Ca. 1920. Central European Circumcision Set. (Photo) ($800-Up)
Includes knife with scenes of the Sacrifice of Isaac and the Blessing of the Circumcision; silver clamp; and silver astringent container. In fitted blue leather covered case. An unusual conversation piece.

3786 Late 18th Cent. Germany. Gilt Silver Beitzah Dish. (Photo) ($400-Up)
Oval shallow dish, gilt inside, roughly 3½" by 2¾", 2¼" high including its stepped base. Used to hold the egg (Beitzah) during Seder services. Edge of base marked "FOEHR" and the running horse and "S" of Stuttgart. Hebrew inscription engraved on side. Rare and attractive.

3½" square faces on the four sides, nicely engraved with figures. Made of a heavy, fairly dark wood with a nicely lathe-turned handle.

3789 Attractive silver Dreidle. (Photo) ($150-Up)
Nearly 2" high with faces about ½" wide. Shaped as four slightly rectangular plates containing Hebrew numbers, the faces joined at top to the handle by four arches, and similarly to the spinning knob on bottom.

3790 Very handsome silver Dreidle. (Photo) ($150-Up)
1½" high with faces nearly 1" wide. Hollow silver, cast in two pieces and joined, each face with Hebrew characters, areas above and below ornamented in scroll patterns. Nice work.

3791 Unusual silver Dreidle. (Photo) ($100-Up)

Arranged as a nearly flat square with Hebrew characters on each edge, a silver handle rising from the center and, below, a shallow series of tiers leading down to the spinning knob. Only 1" high, but the edges measure more than ¾" long. Pretty!

Ivriah Membership Menorah

Ivriah was the Jewish women's organization founded in New York in 1926 for the increase and furtherance of Jewish education and faith. These pieces were presented to members in good standing. The lamp itself, 8½" wide by 9½" high, has the 8 candle cups supported by the letters IVRIAH; a tall central candle holder rises behind.

3793 Polish brass Chanukah Menorah, ca. 1900. (Photo) ($300-Up)

About 6" wide, about the same high, with loop at top for wall hanging. Hinged lid on platform covers 8 small oil cups; brass frame projects to the front with cups for two small candles. Very unusual design, can stand on its four feet or be suspended.

3794 Silver plated Chanukah Menorah from England. (Photo) ($300-Up)

Early 20th century, stamped "Sheffield Plate" on back. 8 small candle cups on a shallow raised base, the back frame flanked by trees and crowned while the central area shows two lions supporting a Menorah of traditional form. Missing the small cup used for lighting the rest. 8½" wide, more than 9½" high, attractive design.

3795 Silver Chanukah Menorah, 19th Century Austrian style. (Photo) ($450-Up)

9½" wide, 8¼" high. 8 candle cups decorated with flowers, set on bar along raised platform. Silver branches connect platform to back, which is surmounted by a crown above a polished egg-shaped boss. Cups at each upper corner to hold candles for lighting the smaller flames. Loop at top back for wall hanging.

3796 18th Century, Dutch. Large hammered copper plate showing Samson & the Lion. ($400-Up)

Nearly 14" wide, more than an inch deep-a decorative, rather than functional, plate in quite high relief.

3797 Ca. 1900. Large Persian silvered copper plate with Moses and the Ten Commandments. ($250-Up)

Beautiful hand-done work which must have taken the artist months. Lengthy Hebrew inscription from Bible around rim, including one spot at very top where the engraver misspelled something, hammered it flat, and redid it. The piece measures 17" by nearly 12" and is more than an inch deep at edges. Rare and very handsome.

3798 Ca. 1900, Europe. Large pewter Passover plate. (Photo) ($500-Up)

Hammer-embossed scene of five men at Seder in center, Hebrew order of the Seder inscribed around rim. 11½" in diameter, about an inch deep with medium-high relief in center. Primarily decorative, but could be used. Very attractive.

3799 Ca. 1900, Germany, Pewter Passover Plate. (Photo) ($500-Up)

9½" diameter, scalloped edges. Seder scene engraved at center, order of the Seder in Hebrew around rim. Hallmark of Nicholas Schaefer on reverse with two other incomplete stamps and a hand-engraved crown with Hebrew inscription. Loop on reverse for hanging. Rare and attractive.

3800 Hand-shaped silver amulet. (Photo) ($175-Up)

Nearly 3½" long, covered on back and fingers with Hebraic inscriptions and symbols from the cabalistic alphabet. Most of these hand-shaped pieces were amulets against the Evil Eye.

3801 Hand-shaped cast silver amulet. (Photo) ($100-Up)

Another apparent "Evil Eye" piece, this one a bit over 2" long and more than 1½" wide, bearing Hebrew inscriptions on obverse and reverse (the reverse ones including a sort of chart of terms.) Very interesting.

Also about 1900, this one is a generally square shape, ring and loop at top, sealed, each side ornamented in an arched frame with rosettes and stylized Hebrew letter in center.

Made ca. 1900, hollow flattened pear-shape with ring through loop at top, decorated borders, Hebrew inscription each side. 2" high, 1½" wide.

17th-18th Centuries, handmade, probably local workmanship. A hollow case roughly 3" by 1½" by ⅝" thick, apparently of rolled sheet metal, ends closed by soldering on plugs of same metal. Along top edge, a series of 7 loops ending in diamond shapes. On one face, hand engraved, though faint, Hebrew inscription. Apparently silver, though darkly toned by age. A very interesting and unusual piece, rare.

Cast in hard reddish-brown wax, the letters then darkened, the whole encased in a silver frame hung from a silver chain, decorated below with five silver pistachio-shaped pendents hanging from red and silver ornaments. Lengthy Hebrew inscription in center, further one around outer edge of amulet. From workmanship, possibly late 19th Century.

Cast in a hard whitish wax, the whole encased in a silver frame very similar to the last, though with only four pendants beneath. Five-line Hebrew inscription in the center. Probably from the same area as the preceding amulet.

3807 Nice silver Marriage Ring. (Photo) ($175-Up)

Small ring, ⅞" diameter, bordered in oak-leaf patterns with Hebrew inscription, topped by a hinged ⅝" 5-towered building.

3808 Larger silver Marriage Ring. (Photo) ($175-Up)

1" diameter, topped by attractively made Synagogue with hinged roof ⅝" wide by the same high." Decorative symbols at each side, Hebrew inscription on outer band.

3809 Lovely Italian Amulet Holder. (Photo) ($600-Up)

A fine mid-19th Century piece, generally shield-shaped with floral and sea-shell ornamentation. 3" high, 2½" wide, of fine workmanship Top center features two hands on a raised boss; lower center has a small door held shut by a screw. Very handsome.

Fantastic 23" Stein

Three vertical panels: at top of each, the Temple of Solomon; at bottom, the Judgement of Solomon; in center scenes, Justice, Solomon, and Fortitude. Long relevant German inscription around base. Lovely colors, as always with the finest of these very popular items-and this is one of the largest we have ever seen!

3811 Circa. 1920. Lovely full-color framed poster showing Jewish immigrants reaching New York. ($175-Up)

Poster measures 20" wide and 30" high, with the upper two-thirds occupied by scene of the immigrants and boat, Statue of Liberty and rainbow before them. Bottom third has six line Yiddish inscription. In chrome steel frame.

3812 1901. Large colored lithograph of "The Tabernacle in the Wilderness." ($200-Up)

27" wide, 20" high, in black and gilt frame, lithograph by J.J. Hofer showing the Tabernacle in the Wilderness, drawn from the descriptions in Exodus, with the Tribes of Israel camped around it. Hand lettered at bottom: "Presented to the Bavis Marks Synagogue on the occasion of the Bicentenary Anniversary 5461-5661 (1701-1901)." A remarkable and very scarce piece, probably unique as a dedication item.

6" long, including red (coral?) knobs. Delicate filigree work, Scroll of Esther on parchment within. A very attractive example of this traditional Purim piece.

3814 20th Century? Small hand-made Shivviti. ($75-Up)

A Shivitti (illustration and description of the symbols, meanings and biblical sources for the Menorrah) hand done in black, gold, red, green and brown, 9" x 13", mounted in a black frame. Hebrew inscriptions at top, sides, bottom, and a Menorrah in center supported by stylized lions, each branch containing further inscriptions, symbolic abbreviations in a series of colored arcs around inner edges of main edge inscription. Very attractive, though simple, work, colorful.

Silvered brass, 2¼" wide at base, 5½" high. Shaped like the bottom half of a massive ancient column: square base decorated with wreath designs, downward-hinging door on one face, while above the compartment rises an ornamental column base of two sections, the very top section supporting a cup-shaped candle holder. The first we have seen anything like this design!

3816 20th Century silver wire and turquoise Spice Box. (Photo) ($100-Up)

Built in square tower shape of many layers, 6" high including the flag on top. Central compartment, with hinged door, is decorated on each side with a group of four small turquoises; two more are on the flag on top. The whole is made of many, many sections of silver wire carefully joined together-we have not seen workmanship or design of this style before.

3817 Ca. 1900. Brass Palestinian Spice Box.(Photo) ($200-Up)

7" high including flag. Once silvered, but now mostly brass showing through years of loving use. Round central compartment engraved with floral designs and Hebrew inscription, hinged door, dome top with revolving flag. Pretty!

3818 1915? Pewter Alms Box. (Photo) ($125-Up)

Shaped like a tankard, 4" wide, 5" high, the handle stamped "UNDER 15." Lid apparently hand made and engraved in vine-motifs on top; raised toothed central opening for insertion of coins. Cut-out metal Hebrew letters attached to front in two-line inscription. These Tzadakah-boxes are popular items, and all seem different in shape.

The hand on this 10" piece is mounted on the end of a long thin silver shaft which is enclosed by a four-part filigree cover: two long sections in delicate silver filigree, separated in the center by a gilt silver filigree ball and topped by a similar gilt ball. From the very top protrudes a shaft cap with ring and chain for hanging. One of the most attractive filigree Yads we have seen.

Simple conical shaft ending in an oval bulge to which is attached a ring with a silver hanging chain. At top, bottom and center of the 8½" shaft are hand-engraved bands of floral design, attractively done. Marked "825" above inner wrist.

11" long, hallmarked above hand, the top layered dome surmounted by an eagle. Loop on eagle carries chain for hanging. Simple but pleasing workmanship.

3822 Early 20th Century. Silvered brass Breastplate. (Photo) ($250-Up)

10" wide, 13½" high, shield-shaped, spiral pillars at edges, crown above, floral designs on main face. In center, Tablets of the Law supported by lions; in opening below, Hebrew inscription. Nice workmanship.

3823 Ca. 1920. Pair of brass Rimmonim (Torah finials.) (Photo) ($150-Up)

From workmanship and designs, probably North African in origin. Each is about 10½" high, 2¾" wide at broadest part. Each has six small conical brass bells attached to lower edge of the broad inverted-cup shaped body which is, in turn, decorated with leaf/flower motifs in arches. May be far older than 1920-very hard to tell with North African designs which are traditional.

A FINE COLLECTION OF ARTHUR SZYK MATERIAL

EXCELLENT GROUP

3824 1941-43. Thirteen World War II cartoons by Arthur Szyk, commissioned by Colliers. 13 Pcs. (Photo) ($300-Up)

1) *A bundled up Hitler in Russia "Detour on the Glory Road." "This damned winter is just another intrigue of Roosevelt and the international bankers."*
2) Hitler playing poker with Russia, with Death (in German dress uniform looking on). Russia holds 2 aces — Britain and the U.S.; Hitler holds three jokers, Il Duce, Vichy France and Japan. (November 1941).
3) "December 7, 1941," Japan offering an olive branch to a western style clad U.S., while preparing to stab the U.S. in the back. Hitler and Il Duce look on dubiously from afar.
4) Hitler sticks Nazi flags into a bleeding globe assisted by Goering, Himler and Goebbels. Two skeletons in S.S. uniforms place stickers on globe "All hope abandon ye who enter here," while the globe frame says in German: "Today we control Europe, tomorrow the world."
5) Hitler and Mussolini in the grasp of Stalin flanked by Churchill and Roosevelt. "Some Necks . . !", the cartoon caption, refers to Hitler's threat to wring the Allies necks like those of chickens.
6) Cartoon of Tojo in June 20, 1942 which makes him look like a gorilla, and is covered with Nazi insignia.
7) March 28, 1942 cartoon of Hitler in full Nazi armor, like as bright with blood stained hands. He is flanked by "Fanine" and Tojo, who holds a bloodstained "Pearl Harbor" knife.
8) February 14, 1942. A seedy looking Fuhrer and Mussolini accompanied by a back stabbing Hirohito stand under the skull and cross bones, all with blood stained hands.
9) February 27, 1943. Hitler and fancy medieval, Nazi symbol-laden gear supported by Satan and Death (the last in German uniform) stand near a globe supported by Tojo and Mussolini, Hitler's foot rests on a pair of books labeled "Democracy", a bay filled with "loot" is near while two disconsolate Europeans in chains are in bottom right corner.
10) The Map Maker. "Now that you've joined us, the Fuhrer will made a special map for you." Satirizes all the double crossing territorial promises being made in the Axis camp. "Schihlgruber & Company Fancy Maps" has a full list of customers including Mussolini, Franco, Tojo and the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem. Hitler is assisted by Goebbels, Goering and Himler, who is skulking behind the canvas.
11) "Il Duce". Benito and Tojo in chains, being led by Goering in one of his fanciest uniforms, all escorted by Death. The most famous Szyk cartoon, which appears in many books on the outbreak of World War II, he turned his pen to caricatures for British papers and periodicals. In 1940, he went to the U.S., where he drew cartoons lampooning the Nazi leaders. These were collected in a volume, THE NEW ORDER (1941). He also illustrated books such as the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam (1940). Szyk was noted for his refined draftsmanship and calligraphy, in the style of medieval.
12) "The New Orderlies" a spoof on the "New Order". Himler and Tojo on horseback, (Mussolini follows at a distance clutching his horse's neck) follow behind Death dressed as an SS man, who in turn controls the Spanish, French, Finish, Hungarian and Roumanian allies of the Axis powers, all with vultures overhead.

A SCHOOL ESSAY WRITTEN JANUARY 1935

Dear Stuermer,

Gauleiter Streicher has told us so much about the Jews that we absolutely hate them. At school we wrote an essay called "The Jews are our Misfortune." I should like you to print my essay. "The Jews are our Misfortune."

Unfortunately, many people today still say, "God created the Jews too. That is why you must respect them also." We say, however, "Vermin are also animals, but we still destroy them." The Jew is a half-caste. He has inherited characteristics of Aryans, Asiatics, Negroes and Mongols. In a half-caste, the worst characteristics predominate. The only good thing about him is his white colour. The South Sea Islanders have a proverb that goes: "God made the white man and God made the black man. But the devil made the half-caste." Jesus once said to them, "God is not your father, but the devil." The Jews have a wicked book of laws. It is called the Talmud. The Jews look on us as animals as well and treat us accordingly. They use cunning tricks to take away our wealth. The Jews ruled in the court of Karl of Franconia. That is why Roman law was introduced. This did not suit the German peasants: it was not a law for the Roman townsman-farmers either, but a Jewish merchant law. The Jews are also certainly guilty of the murder of Karl of Franconia.

In Gelsenkirchen the Jew Grueneberg sold us rotten meat. His book of laws allows him to do that. The Jews have plotted revolts and incited war. They have led Russia into misery. In Germany they gave the Communist Party money and paid their thugs. We were at death's door. Then Adolf Hitler came. Now the Jews are abroad and stir up trouble against us. But we do not waver and we follow the Fuehrer. We do not buy anything from the Jew. Every penny we give them kills one of our own people.

Heil Hitler. Erna Listing, Gelsenkirchen, Oswaldstr. 8. Reader's letter to "Der Stuermer," January 1935.

We print the above letter for information purposes only.

DACHAU

POSTAGE STAMPS OF DACHAU

Dachau, the first of the S.S. organized camps, became the model and training ground for all other concentration camps. The Americans liberated this camp in April 29, 1935. On November 1, 1945 a committee printed stamps known as the Dachau Souvenir Sheets. Funds from this endeavor were used in part by the Red Cross of Poland for the benefit of small numbers of survivors. Stamps were sold in single sheets perforated and imperforated as well as gummed and ungummed. The following is an interesting assortment of said issues.

3870 1945. Four perforated sheets of 25 stamps each of the 10, 25 (both colors), and 50 Pfennig values. (Photo) ($200-Up)

An extremely scarce item particularly because of the high value 20 Mark piece. Not to be confused with the common contemporary forgeries around. It's interesting to note that after the war some German papers were found and in one of the documents there was a communication that stated "the Ghetto Lodz is obviously only a temporary measure. At what junction and by what means the Ghetto and thereby the town of Lodz will be cleaned of Jews, I reserve to myself. Our final objective must be, in any case, to burn out the plague boil without trace."

3881 1940. 50 Pfennig, 1, 5 and 20 Mark notes of Lodz 4 Pcs. ($35-Up)

COMPLETE SET
FIRST OFFERING OF ZICRON YA'AKOV TOKENS

3966 1885. 1 Piastre. Brass 27mm Haffner CC-17A. VG- Loop Removed (Photo) ($250-Up)
In 1885 there was a shortage of small change in the settlement founded by Baron Edmund De Rothschild and Mr. Yehuda Wromser, his representative suggested that tokens be manufactured locally. Initially planned for the settlement, the tokens circulated freely. The tokens were short lived and withdrawn as illegal tender. They were struck in Paris. Because of their short life they are extremely rare.

Please note that a 5% buyers charge will be added to each lot purchased on all purchases.

3967 1885. ½ Piastre. Zichron Ya'akov. Brass 23mm Haffner CC-17B. Extra Fine. (Photo) ($500-Up)

UNIQUE WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN JUDAIC POLITICAL AMERICANA PIECE

Lot 3970

3970 1896. Presentation Piece by the Hebrew D(istrict) C(ommittee). (Photo) ($500-Up)

In silver, of course! Nearly 3" wide Star of David with wreath in center surrounding an oval door bearing the Decalogue; when the door is opened, there is a space for a portrait, and the inside of the door is engraved "Our Choice - Wm.J.Bryan." Star is suspended at the top from a crowned bar reading "Pres. by the Hebrew D.C.," while a similar, though uncrowned, plate hanging down from the Star has Psalm 119, Verse 123, in Hebrew ("Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.") The center reverse reads "J.Wineberg Pres.," while the back of the bottom plate is engraved "D. Shapiro Pres.; E.N.Zolin V. Pres.; S. Ginzburg Sec." This piece must have been prepared in either 1896 or 1900, during one of Bryan's compaigns for the Presidency on the Free Silver ticket. (In view of which, of course, Verse 127 of the same Psalm might have been more appropriate: "Therefore I love thy commandments above gold: yea, above fine gold!") A unique opportunity.

3971 1898. 2nd Zionist Conference-Basil, Switzerland. 28mm brass. Extremely scarce. ($275-Up)

This unusual item was given to attendants at the Conference. The obverse pictures portraits of Herzl, Gaster, Mandelstadt, Lazar and Nordau. The reverse is inscribed, in Yiddish, "I will take the children from among the nation and bring them onto their own land". Top loop missing.

A SELECTION OF ORIGINAL PALESTINE MEDALS FROM THE FAMOUS BEZALEL SCHOOL

Bezalel is named for the Biblical son of Uri who constructed and decorated the Ark of the covenant. Bezalel was founded, by Boris Schatz, in 1906 in Jerusalem. Originally supported by private donations, the school is now under the supervision of the National Council of higher education. After meeting Herzl in 1903, Boris Schatz restricted himself to Judaic themes. The Bezalel school produced some of the most magnificant medallic art of the time.

The upper section is inscribed, "To the Synagogue NEVACHAYIM from the donation money left to the people of the congregation." The lower section is inscribed "This was bought by KASHER A. I. Enkreitzman". While it is not unusual to buy a Torah for a synagogue, it is extremely unusual to find the dedication plaque available. Based on extensive research, the only situation where it would become available would be when the Torah rollers were replaced and the plaque set aside because another person had paid for the Torah repair. The congregation of the Nevachayim Synagogue is located in Jerusalem.

HISTORIC AND RARE
EXCHANGE NATIONAL BANK OF CHICAGO
PRESENTATION MEDAL
ONE OF ONLY 5 SETS IN THE ENTIRE WORLD

4080 1972. Exchange National Bank of Chicago. (Kagan CM-47). A complete set of 5. 59mm. Tombac, 59mm. Silver, 45mm. Silver, 45mm. Gold (25 minted of this pure 2 ounce gold piece), and 45mm. Tombac (5 minted!) 5 Pcs. (Photo) ($6,000-Up)

One of the most eagerly sought after issues of the Israel Government Coins and Medals Corporation. This complete set, the first ever seen or auctioned anywhere in the world is of historic importance. This medal was officially commissioned by the Exchange National Bank of Chicago to commemorate the first American bank in Israel, in November 1970. These medals were struck in 1972. FIVE COMPLETE SETS OF ALL FIVE EDITIONS OF THE MEDAL WERE SUPPOSED TO BE PRESENTED TO THE HEADS OF STATE BY THE BANK OF ISRAEL. THE BALANCE OF THE MEDALS WERE SENT TO THE UNITED STATES FOR DISPERSEMENT.

The above, as written in Arnold Kagan's book, is now supplemented by the facet that shortly after 1972 the Exchange National Bank of Chicago was liquidated and assumed by another bank. For years Israel numismatists have been searching for any of these examples and auction records only indicate that the 59mm. Tombac specimen has appeared at public auction twice in the last 4 years - that being the Haffner specimen lot 1366 in April of 1975 at $185.00 and the Rapaport specimen lot 208 in April of 1977 at $320.00!

While it can not be proved beyond a shadow of a doubt, it has been widely assumed that after the liquidation of the bank the vast majority of these medals had been melted down. We know for a fact that they were struck because of the serial numbers on the edge inscriptions placed there by the Israel Government Coins and Medals Corporation but in contemplating the purchase of these rare and historic pieces consider the following;

1 - The 45mm. Tombac medal has a total mintage of only 5 pieces - making it the rarest of all Israel state medals.

2 - The 45mm. Gold piece with 2 solid ounces of pure gold has a total mintage of only 25 pieces thus making it the scarcest of any of the official State of Israel gold pieces with the exception of the 1976 Chess Gold Medal offered elswhere.

3 - The 59mm. Silver piece with a total mintage of only 500 makes it far scarcer then the very popular and rare United Jewish Appeal piece with mintage of 784 in large silver.

4 - The 45mm. Silver medal with a total mintage of 1,500 pieces ranks amongst the scarcer 45mm. silver issues.

This set is unquestionably a prize for any Israel numismatic collection.

RARE LET ME PEOPLE GO—BERNE DIE VARIETY

4122 1971. Let My People Go. BERNE DIE. Estimated mintage of 70-80 pcs. (Photo) ($2,000-Up)
Discovered in 1974, this most unusual piece is easily distinguished from the normal example by the opening on the bottom of the mem (proof mark) found on the bottom on the reverse. The Berne mint in Switzerland was asked to make dies for this coin and after striking approximately 70-80 pieces the Government of Israel examined it and decided against using it since they felt the die was too concave.
This piece is of the highest rarity and the only other specimens that we can trace in the last five years were the Sylvia Haffner specimen and the Marjorie Rapoport speciment which sold over two years ago.

PRESENTION MEDALS

EXCESSIVELY RARE BRONZE 1957 SINAI CAMPAIGN MEDAL

SIGNED BY DAVID BEN GURION
1 OF 2 SPECIMENS KNOWN TO US

4207 1957. Israel-France Sinai Campaign Medal. 80mm. BRONZE. (Photo) ($2,500-Up)

We quote from Arnold Kagan's book (page PM-3) "This medal was issued by David Ben Gurion. . . . to the French pilots from the Paratroops corps who took an active part in the campaign to open the Gulf of Eilat for Israel Shipping. THERE WERE THIRTY original medals struck without the inscription on the reverse, WHICH WERE LATER HAND ENGRAVED BY SHAMIR BROS. AT A LATER TIME, THE INSCRIPTION WAS ADDED TO THE REVERSE DIE & MEDALS WERE STRUCK FOR ADDITONAL PRESENTATION . . ."

IN KAGAN'S BOOK HE REFERS ONLY TO SILVERPLATED SPECIMENS. HE MAKES NO MENTION OF THE APPEARANCE OR EXISTENCE OF ANY OF THE ORIGINAL 30 that were not silverplated. HERE IS ONE.

IN ALL THE SPECIMENS THAT WE HAVE HANDLED OF THE SILVERPLATED VERSION ALL WERE UNIFORMLY THE SAME:WEAK REVERSE LETTERING AND A VERY WEAK SWORD TIP ON THE REVERSE. THIS EXAMPLE HAS A WEAK SIGNATURE WITH THE SHARPEST OF LETTERING AND A SUPERBLY SHARP SWORD TIP. IN ADDITION THIS EXAMPLE HAS A CHARACTERISTIC DIE FILL ON THE BOTTOM OF THE REVERSE SHIELD.

AN EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY FOR THE ISRAEL SPECIALIST. ONLY THE SECOND WE HAVE HAD THE PLEASURE OF HANDLING. WE KNOW OF NO OTHERS. This is not the specimen sold 8 years ago in the Superior sale of 1971 when it brought an earth shattering unheard of price of $460.00. THE HIGHEST PRICE EVER PAID FOR AN ISRAEL MEDAL AT THAT TIME.

When will you have another chance?

4208 1957. Sinai Campaign Medal. 80mm. Silver. (Photo) ($450-Up)

4210 1959. First Harp Competition 61mm Bronze. Kagan CM-2A. (Photo) ($250-Up)

This is the first Harp medal, struck crudely and flat. The final mintage of 200 is indicative of its rarity. Rarely offered and should bring a substantial bid. Very rare thick planchet.

4211 1959. First Harp Competition 61mm Bronze. Kagan CM-2A. ($250-Up)

As Above. Regular Planchet.

EXTREMELY RARE COMPLETE SET OF ANGLO-PALESTINE BANK NOTES

4281 1948. 500 Mils, 1, 5, and 10 Pounds. Uniface. (May 14, 1948, Anglo-Palestine Bank, cf. Haffner page 128). Crisp Uncirculated. (Photo) ($5,000-Up)

An extremely rare and desirable item. We quote from The Promised Lands 1973 catalogue-lot #635, "The Anglo-Palestine Bank, acting in consonance with the Jewish National Authorities, ordered the Shosshani Printing House in Tel Aviv to print a set of four banknotes that could be used in Israel in the event that notes being printed in the United States failed to arrive. The prevention of a money crisis was the order of the day, so the company printed in complete secrecy 7,465,000 (Palestine Pounds valuation), worth of these four notes. After the printing, the notes were left in the custodial care of the Haganah for Protection from any outside source. These notes were printed in April of 1948, dated May 14, 1948, and would have been the standard currency, but the shipment from the American Banknote Company did, in fact, arrive. The currency was kept in Israel until September 1948, when it was destroyed under government supervision. One set of the four banknotes was presented to the Kadman Museum)."

At the time of the Haffner sale it was considered that this set was the only collectible set outside of the Kadman Musuem. Our research indicates to us that there are at least 12 other sets, four in institutions and 8 in private hands including this one. Regardless of its population it should be considered one of the extreme rarities of all collectible Israel currency.

For those of you who are not familiar with its history we update our information by advising you that it is now currently estimated that 15 specimens of the 1949 25 Pruta Specimen coins exist with 9 destined for museums and public institutions and the other six remaining in collectors hands. 1949 25 Mils Uniface Pattern—Haffner Plate Piece

4312 1949. Uniface trial strike in lead of the 25 Mils piece. (Photo) ($4,000-Up)

One of the greatest and most interesting rarities in modern Israeli coinage—only 4 examples have turned up, each distinct and each offered at auction only once, never surfacing again. This piece is the plate specimen in Sylvia Haffner's book "The History of Modern Israel's Money 1917-1970," P. 68—owned at that time by Reuben Welber. The previous three appearances of this type have been: Sept., 1973, Schulman's Auction of the Freiburn specimen, Lot 844; May, 1974, Pine Tree's auction of The Promised Lands Sale, Lot 706A; and May, 1976, Pine Tree's Ellenbogen Collection Sale, Lot 280. Prices realized on these three occasions were: $1,300; $2,100; and $2,500. Since May, 1976, no specimen has been offered at auction despite the famous collections (including Weiss and Olson) which have been sold. This, a famous plate piece in a standard reference work, offered after nearly three years during which no specimen has been available, should set new records. Recognizeable by the small holes at lower left and upper right corners outside the actual coin area, just as each of the other three has its own distinct features, this will doubtless remain a prized example for the future. Ex Welber—Yulish.

UTRECHT TRIAL STRIKE

($3,000-Up)

One of the most exceptional items we have ever had the pleasure of offering for public acution sale. The only known reference that we can find to this spectacular item is the story in the August 1968 issue of the "Shekel," where we quote an article by Arie Kindler-curator of the Kadman Numismatic Museum in Tel Aviv . . .

"In 1954 a suggestion was made to issue a series of coin-medals to commemorate the renewal of minting activity in Israel. The matter was informally discussed at the advisory committee for the design of coins, commemorative coins, and banknotes, which then was attached to the Israel Government printing office. Mr. S. Golden the present government printer dealt with the matter on the behalf of the office. The late Dr. Leo Kadman who was a member of the advisory committee at that time showed me a number of sample strikings of this proposed issue. The samples were subsequently presented by him to the Kadman Numismatic Museum to be permanently exhibited."

The above offering is the only known specimen to us outside of the Kadman Numismatic Museum and is of the highest importance.

Double wire edge. Massive die crumbling along obverse edge from 9:00 to 11:00—this may help account for the rarity of this type, of which only three had been discovered when the type was first reported in Coin World for August 30, 1978.
